

STALKER

A FRANKO B WORKSHOP

22 JULY - 2 AUGUST 2019

THE FOUNDRY
MAUBOURGUET FRANCE

Stalker aims for candidates to search for their unconscious desires, pushed physically and mentally by the internationally renowned artist Franko B. Taking place at The Foundry - an old iron foundry, recently rehabilitated into a site for artistic production - candidates are put through an extremely rigorous training programme for 12 days in which they will be challenged and forced out of their comfort zones. Situated in Maubourguet, at the foothills of the Pyrenees, the workshop has been designed to incorporate both industrial and rural landscapes.

[Residence]

- Hospitality (food and lodging) for 12 days
- Board in an iron foundry.
- Workplace: Maubourguet & the surrounding areas.

[Costs]

The full cost of the workshop is €400 per person. Included are registration fees and material for the workshop, hospitality and meals. Cost does not include travel fare to airport/train station. A coach will be organised to transport candidates to/from The Foundry at the beginning and end of the workshop.

[Application]

To apply for the workshop, candidates must submit an application which includes a CV, portfolio and motivational text no longer than 150 words. Candidates must send applications by 26th May 2019 to the following email addresses: frankobartist@yahoo.co.uk & george@a-political.org. Candidates should be able to communicate in English.

[Info]

Please email george@a-political.org for more information regarding details of the workshop and application process.
